Excitement Among the Sellers-Who the Buyers Were-A Meeting to Raise Money for the Davis Monument.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] DANVILLE, Va., May 29.—The chief topic among the tobacco people to-day is the purchase on this market of a considerable quantity of cutters by representatives of the American Tobacco Company. Before this company got to be such a power in the land a number of Danville dealers ught largely of cutters and the trust caught them in a bad fix. They have been caught them in a bad fix. They have been holding on for some time past and at one time it looked as if they were going to loose heavily, but on yesterday representatives of the American Tobacco Company came here and opened negotiations for the purchase of all the cutters in town. The representatives were; John E. Pope, of Richmond; B. N. Duke, of Durham; William A. Marbury, of Baltimore; T. Walker, of Durham, and F. G. Scaum, of Winston. They remained in the city during the day, and it is announced to-day that they purchased about 300,000 pounds of cutters at an average of nearly 20 cents a pound. GLAD TO UNLOAD.

The sellers were D. A. Overby, Venable & Co., W. A. Holland, George T. Hughes & Co., and N. T. Roberison. All of them lost something, but under the circumstances they were only too glad to unload and are well pleased with their sale. Negotiations are pending between the company and Craddock & Paxton for the purchase of a considerable quantity of cutters from that firm, but the trade has not yet been made.

but the trade has not yet been made.

THE DAYIS-MONUMENT FUND.

A vigorous effort will be made here to raise a sum of money for the Dayis-monument fund and a public meeting will be held June 18th.

The fire laddies are looking forward with much pleasure to the forth-oming meeting of the Firemen's Association in this city next week. An interesting programme has been arranged and a good time is expected. THE STEADY BAINS.

It has been raining steadily in this section for the past several days and farmers are in great trouble lest the grass runs away with their to A tobacco-buyer told me to-day that during the past two weeks $400,000 have been paid out on this market for leaf-tobacco, and that for all that every pound of tobacco offered was readily taken up at good prices.

ANOTHER ACCOMAC LUNATIC. The Strange Freaks of Captain Shrieves-

The Storm-Celebration-Hymeneal. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
ONANCOCK, May 28.—Captain Thomas West Shrieves, who lives on Hunting creek, about ten miles north of Onancock, has been acting so enriculty of late as to create the impression that he is not of sound mind. On several occasions he has become quite violent,
and threatened to carve up his entire household.
Late Wednesday afternoon he hitched his horse to a potato-cart and started out in search of potato sprouts, though he had a great start, dance of them at home. He had not gotten off his farm before the horse ran away and tore the cart to nices. HIS THROAT CUT.

Shrieves returned home, and shortly after nightfall his family found him sitting in the stable with his threat cut from ear to ear and blood flowing freely from the wound. Dr. Drummond was hastliy summoned and succeeded in stopping the flow of blood. Shrieves cut his threat with a dull case-knife and evidently thought he had finished himself. The Doctor thinks he will probably recover, and steps will be taken as soon as possible to have him sent to an insane asylum.

THE SAME NEIGHBORHOOD. THE SAME NEIGHBORHOOD.

He comes from the same neighborhood a Captain Sidney Russell, who, while laborin under mental aberration last week, wander off from home and was shot by the Bradfer brothers and has since died. Both tragedie might have been averted by the exercise of proper vigilance over these two unfortunate men-A GOOD CROWD, ANYHOW.

The rain-storm that prevailed here Tuesda greatly interfered with the celebration that too place that day. In spite of lowering skies, how ever, the parade was a great success. The tow Hall was filled to overflowing with people wheame to hear the concert, and the display of freeworks was very fine. The rain prevented an extensive display of the business-houses of the town. THE NOR'EASTER.

The northeast storm that has prevailed here since Tuesday is still raging and the weather is cold enough for March. The wind is blowing strong from the northeast and the rain is pour ing down steadily.

LEWIS-ELLETT.

There was a pretty wedding at Emmanuel church, Jenkin's Bridge, on Thursday, May 14th, at 9 A. M. The contracting parties were Miss Fannie J. Ellett, of Farmville, and Mr. John F. Lewis, of Accounce. The waiters were Miss Mary Taylor and Eddie Lewis, Miss Mattie Fletcher and Charles Witham, Miss Sadie Dickerson and Robert Fletcher, Miss Florence Mears and Lee Lewis, Miss Florence Smith and Eddie Taylor, Miss Belinda Drammond and Douglas Dickerson. They were preceded to the altar by Misses Willie and Beesie Gladstone, two little Misses Willie and Beesse Gladstone, two little flower girts, while Mrs. Dr. Fl-tcher played the wedding march. The bride was handsomely attired in pearl-colored cloth, with bonnet and gloves to natch, and the groom in the usual black. They were accompanied to Flits's Wharf by all their waiters, and from there they took the steamer to Baltimore for a short trip. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Wallace.

ON THE EAST SIDE OF BROOK TURNPIKE NEAR THE CITY OF RICHMOND AT AUCTION FOR COMMISSIONERS OF THE COURT.

WITH HALL THROUGH THE CENTRE

RETTY SURROUNDING GROUNDS

THIS IS THE FIRST SUBDIVISION

OF THE HANDSOME AND ATTRACTIVE

By virtue of a decree hereinafter referred to we, as commissioners of the court, acting in conjunction with Mrs. McCue, who owns the dwell-ing and a part of the land in the plan of "Waver-ley," will sell by auction, on the premises, on rounded by an attractive lawn set in grass and well-stocked with shade-trees and shrubbers, 2. A LARGE NUMBER OF EXTRA HAND-SOME AND VERY VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS, fronting on Brook road and on McCue, Waverley, Prescott, and Childs avenues, all of which are sixty feet while. These lots will be sold with the privilege of one or more, so that every one will have an equal chance, and the restrictions will be such as to insure against objectionable occupation of any of the lots.

The nearness of these lots to the city, they being almost as near to the Capitol as Lee monument is, and their situation on and close to the Brook road, which is to be made so attractive at an early day, combine to make this a choice place of residence and a fine field for speculation.
